Instructor

Call or Text (405) 609-4765

Professional studio piano instruction in a collegiate piano lab setting. Using a music theory based approach, students will learn note reading and the number system.

David Outon is from the city of Moore, Oklahoma. He has a degree in music education from the University of Oklahoma. He also studied music at Wichita State University. He has been involved in music since he was five years old. He has produced and played on over 60 album projects, directed several church choirs and orchestras, played piano for several major artists, and produced numerous stage productions. David has been the orchestrator and arranger for many music projects but now enjoys composing and arranging for bands and orchestra, serving as band and orchestra director with the Oklahoma Home School Band, and providing private piano instruction.

Weekly Private Lessons: $20/30 minutes or $30/hour
